If War Does Come—
Japan Will Be Ready
Arizona Goes Wet

By Arthur Brisbane

DR. EDIE, formerly professor of finance at the University of Chicago, says Europe is worrying "about gold and about war."

"The French talk about 1933" as a time when war with Germany might come.

The French know what inflation means. Their franc was officially reduced in value by 80 per cent, which is as though our dollar should suddenly be cut from a hundred cents to twenty cents.

Mr. Edie says there will be "bloodshed in Paris if the franc falls again."

If the predicted war should come in 1933 between France and Germany, which seems improbable in view of the four-power treaty, it would be savage and ruthless.

Knowing that, this time, they would have no help from England, which would not conscript them if it were, or from Russia, which is busy with its own affairs, or from the United States, which was taken for its motto, "Once was enough," the French would strike instantly through the air with their 5000 war planes, carrying poison gas and explosives.

For the quickest possible results, the world has never seen or thought of such a war as the next one will be, if it must come.

Yesterday, fifteen million Japanese in Tokyo and surrounding districts watched a sham battle concerned with the capture and defense of Tokyo.

There were three attacks by roaring airplanes; stretcher bearers with gas masks carried wounded and supposed gas victims to emergency hospitals.

The "spiritual education of the people" was the purpose of the demonstration, planned so that in case of real war Tokyo should not be taken by surprise.

In case of real war, populations of our big cities would be taken by surprise, decidedly.

3 POWERS URGE U. S. ACT IN CUBA

Cuban Situation

Ambassador Debuti of Japan calls at state department in Washington to inquire about U. S. plans. Britain and Spain have protested damage to property of their people in Havana fighting.

Cuba in the grip of martial law, while U. S. Ambassador Welles was moving swiftly today to restore peace.

U. S. army and navy ready to move to the island in a few days.

President Roosevelt awaits response from President Machado on the former's plan to end the strike.

BULLETIN
Washington, Aug. 10 (INS)—Cuban Ambassador Oscar Cintas called on Under Secretary of State Phillips at noon. It was believed he brought President Machado's reply to President Roosevelt's suggestion toward ending strike in Cuba.

Washington, Aug. 10—The troubled situation in Cuba brought Ambassador Katsuji Debuti of Japan to the State Department today to inquire about conditions there with particular reference to the safety of Japanese subjects.

He told newspapermen afterward that Secretary Hull had assured him the United States is taking every possible step to prevent damage to the life and property of foreigners in Cuba.

Japan is the third foreign nation to take up the matter. With British and Spanish diplomatic representatives protesting damage to their subjects in Cuba and toward that an actual reign of terror exists in Havana, the position of the Washington government toward the troublesome Latin neighbor rapidly approached a climax.

The British ambassador in Havana joined the Spanish ambassador today in demanding the United States take immediate action to clear up the Cuban volcano.

'End This Parade of Medical Horrors,' Mrs. Costello Pleads in Her Own Story

By JESSIE COSTELLO
(As told to Ruth Muggelton through Atty. Rafter.)
(Copyright, 1933, by the Boston Evening American.)

(Ruth Muggelton, staff writer for the Boston Evening American, whose reports from the trial of Jessie B. Costello have been one of the features of the long season, gives exclusively today the reactions of Mrs. Costello to the trial, and she has, and is still facing, Jessie, eager to let the public know how she feels about the manner in which the state is conducting its case, and the following interview, through her counsel, Francis E. Rafter, from her cell in Salem jail.)

I am bewildered by it all, even if I do understand that it is serious business. It is so confusing and can be interpreted one way or another, that I can't see why it should be necessary to judge me circumstantially on the hypothetical and assumptive opinions of experts.

Bill is dead and those doctors took his body around in their autopsical manner as though he were a football. And I, his wife, have to sit by and listen to them tell how they ground his stomach wall in a meat chopper and how they took part of his muscle thigh, and how they pawed him unmercifully with their probing instruments.

All Too Ghastly,
Heart Ready to Pop
Why must they do it? Why must they be so brutal in their discussions about the man's body? Why don't they let him rest in peace, instead of parading his shell like a stalking ghost?

It is revolting—simply revolting.

BITTER BATTLES HALT SEE-SAW CONTEST: JESSIE LAUGHS

POISON AGAIN THE BIG TOPIC

- 1—Dr. Boos again attacks defense on Costello's death by cyanide. Says death from poison unlikely and if inhaled fumes will kill in one minute. Has sharp clash with Atty. Clark.
- 2—Dr. Rooney forced to admit he did not make perfect rest in hunt for poison in Costello's stomach.
- 3—Mystery in $1000 policy of Costello, made to father. Both sides admit no record of transfer to wife can be found.
- 4—Patrolman Wilson blocked from telling his story. He was night officer on Lover's Lane and Hog Hill, where "Kiss and Tell" McMahon said he and Jessie went on moonlight nights.
- 5—Move of defense counsel to exclude all medical testimony and consider only the "unimpaired" testimony of lay witnesses.
- 6—Mystery man sought by the State for rebuttal battle that sees the climax of the trial.
- 7—Battle of rebuttal predicted to last two days, eliminating the possibility of a decision before the early part of next week.
- 8—Return to the witness stand of Jessie Costello and Edward J. McMahon, her "tell-tale" policeman, due tomorrow.

Salem Courthouse, Aug. 10—The first bitter personal battle of Jessie Costello's trial for murder disrupted the proceedings today as the defense sought to turn back the State's onslaught on its conjecture that Fire Capt. William J. Costello might have died by accidental cyanide poisoning.

Long conferences in chambers and at the bench, with the defense fighting every inch of the way to block new evidence, and a story that never was told, featured the battle of rebuttal.

Dr. William P. Boos, toxicologist for the state, and William G. Clark, senior counsel for Jessie, engaged in an acrimonious debate. The acid of sarcasm and caustic criticism was added—like the cyanide that night before Bill Costello died—to the much discussed oral acid.

"You're poorly coached, Mr. Clark," Dr. Boos shouted at the defense attorney, who had taken him for rebuttal cross-examination.

"There's no need for you to make that statement, Doctor," Clark flared. "You're taking a prevarical personal interest in this case."

"You have been in court every day, haven't you, doctor, and you have sat there beside the state's attorneys shaking your head and smiling at every question and answer, haven't you?"

"I have not," shouted Dr. Boos. "I never smiled in this court—not once."

Dr. Boos' reference to Clark's "poor coaching" was evidently intended for Dr. Alexander O. Getchell, the New York toxicologist who has been supplying questions to the defense.

Court opened at 10:48 a. m. Judge Foster announced to the jury that the delay was caused by a conference of counsel "over a matter which if not agreed upon might cause a great deal more trouble if thrashed out in the courtroom."

Defense Counsel Rafter read a statement to the jury. It follows: "On December 1, 1931, William J. Costello took out a $1000 insurance policy with the Massachusetts Fire Ins. Co. as beneficiary. The policy named his father, John J. Costello, Jr., as beneficiary. That town on Hooks . . . Page 12

MAJOR CONCERNS TAKE ON NEW EMPLOYEES

Boston Drives to Get
All Workers Under Code

The Blue Eagle will fly from the masthead of every vessel of the Gloucester fishing fleet, which adopted a code of its own making and has had it unanimously approved as a National Recovery code by the administration.

This was announced today by Mayor John A. Martin of Gloucester, who said the code of the Gloucester fishing fleet, which was adopted by the Gloucester Fishermen's Production Association, may be used as a model for the entire fishing industry.

This was done in advance of acceptance of a code for the industry which has not as yet been approved at Washington.

The drive to put all Boston employers under the code began with a meeting at the National Recovery committee, named by the chamber of commerce.

Discovery that the "larger" system of working employees had been put into effect in some of the stores led officials to re-assess that this is in violation of the National Recovery program, which contemplates the fixing of additional employees when the number of permanent employees is reduced.

Striking of more than 1000 additional workers was formally announced to headquarters by the A. & P. chain and more may be added for the warehouse.

Re-Major Machine of Gloucester said 80 per cent of the mackerel fishermen of New England were in the agreement. The other 20 per cent are in either parts of the code.

HER ADMIRER REBUFFED

Mrs. Priscilla Rogers, 25, attractive wife of an army officer, was the central figure in a strange love triangle which ended in a broken court. George B. Watta, who pulled a toy gun on Mrs. Rogers when she rejected his love appeals, is all through with romance. He was called with instructions not to molest Mrs. Rogers again.

France Cuts Tariff on U. S. Imports

Paris, Aug. 10 (AP)—Relief from high tariff increases on certain American goods became effective today with the publication of a modifying decree in the official journal.

The minimum tariff was reduced on many classes of goods, including printing type, tinoline, leather, baggage, cutlery and surgical instruments, while the rate was reduced on many other products.

U. S. DRIVE ON STRIKES BEGUN

Washington, Aug. 10 (INS)—A drive on strikes harassing industry and labor in various sections was launched today by the President's National Labor Board.

After considering the most troublesome disputes from the viewpoint of numbers involved, and other claims to priority, the board issued orders to shut down strikes in Pennsylvania, and with summary jurisdiction over disputes involving the boat and shoe industry later.

The plan is to take up strikes and other labor disputes in groups, according to numbers involved.

Nurmi Short on Talk Faces Divorce

London, Aug. 10 (INS)—Because he is unable to talk as well as he can run, Paavo Nurmi, famous long-distance runner, faces a divorce suit, the London Daily Herald reported today in a dispatch from Stockholm.

The report said Nurmi's wife had decided to sue her husband on grounds of incapability, because her husband is not a talker, and a poor runner.

U. S. Fixes Salaries in R. R. Bankruptcy

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission today fixed at $3000 a year the maximum salary to be paid J. W. Baldwin as trustee of the Missouri Pacific Railroad under the new voluntary bankruptcy act. Baldwin is former president of the road.

The salary of Guy A. Thompson, another trustee, was placed at $25,000 and that of Edward J. Wills, counsel for the trustees at $18,000.

Miners Split on New Code Terms

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—Clavague between union and non-union proposed code terms of the coal industry took form today in a hearing before the National Labor Board.

The salary of Guy A. Thompson, another trustee, was placed at $25,000 and that of Edward J. Wills, counsel for the trustees at $18,000.

Athens, Aug. 10 (INS)—Once he commanded a utility empire worth $200,000,000 in gold, the late P. D. Insull, now a pauper, is unable to buy postage stamps.

This is Samuel Insull, one-time king of the Middle Western Utilities empire in the United States, who deflated extrajudicial proceedings and reconciled himself to a life of exile in Greece.

LOVE FORMER OFFICER

Youth Who Forced
Romance With Toy
Pistol Freed

Brockton, Aug. 10—George B. Watta, 21, of Weymouth, Md., is all through with love, he told Judge William C. Rowe, today.

It was not a case of charges of simple assault, accused of having snatched an air, Priscilla Rogers, wife of a Portman, Va., artillery officer, who is spending a vacation with her mother-in-law in Halifax.

It was not a case of assault at all, nor even of attempted kidnapping, Watta told Judge Rowe. He said he pulled a toy gun, but he was so excited that he did not know what he was doing.

REVEALS LOVE STORY

It was in love with Mrs. Rogers, said Watta, who had known her in Washington for more than two years. And he simply could not stand it when she came up here.

When he spoke to her, he went on with tears in his eyes, she told him to stop it, and that he would not answer any more of his letters. She didn't.

"I just couldn't stand it any longer, so I persuaded Jim to take me up here with me. I had to see her."

John Rowe interrupted to ask if he knew she was a married woman, and Watta said he did not know she was married.

ONLY TOY PISTOL

It met her after she said I had to see her, Watta said. He reached Halifax late yesterday, Mrs. Rogers told Watta and his friend to leave the place at once, he said.

But he refused to talk to me for a few minutes, he went on. "Then I pulled out that toy pistol. I don't know why I did it."

Watta said that at this moment he entered Watta's home and held him by the neck of the neck, said Chief James R. Moore, of Weymouth.

ROMANCE ENDED

"I'm all through with love," answered Watta, who said he had left the place and he got out of the place and he got out of the place and he got out of the place.

George Rowe found him guilty and then filed the case with the court. It would go on with him if he ever returned to molest Mrs. Rogers. The charges against Ferrier were dropped.

But he denied that he had known the man in Washington, but denied that she had ever had an affair with him. She admitted that she had received numerous and letters from Watta since she left the capital, but said she had written to him but once to ask him not to annoy her with further notes.

Salt Water Saves Sunstroke Victim

Hartlebury, Pa., Aug. 10 (INS)—A quart of ice-cold salt water drained into the body of Henry Morrison, a 40-year-old man, today was credited with having saved his life.

Overcome by sunstroke, Morrison was taken to a hospital. His temperature recorded 107.5 degrees—two-fifths of a degree below the point which usually brings death.

Doctors suggested a quart bottle of ice-cold salt water over the patient's head. A rubber hose, with a hypodermic needle at one end, was attached to the bottle.

The needle was inserted in a vein in Morrison's elbow and the ice water gradually drained into his body. Morrison's temperature dropped to 103 degrees and ice-packs kept it there.

Windsor, N. S., Aug. 10 (AP)—Forest fires were raging here today and moving toward a dozen hamlets as nearly 1000 volunteer firemen struggle to check the flames.

DESPICED TO NEEDY AND WELL-TO-DO

Many Notables Guests
Where Down-and-Outers Find Aid

By PEGGY DOYLE
Very often you hear the expression, "The French do that so well." Almost invariably this recognition is to some action or routine that has to do with the recognition of human qualities. Briefly, it is usually something of the sort: "Importance done with consummate grace."

There are things—many of them—that Americans do very well and in my observation of the city there are few of its accomplishments, civic, humanitarian or philanthropic, done with a finer (may I say?) quality than the modest uprightness of the Volunteers of America.

Today I had luncheon at the old Marlborough Restaurant, No. 33 Brattle St., with its lofty ceilings, great sweep of space, impressive mahogany arched doorways and in that pleasant atmosphere which has always, and perhaps always will, distinguish this rendezvous of fashion.

15-CENT LUNCHEON

My luncheon cost 15 cents and (what the docting of words connotes) involved in to extend an epicurean dabbling I had, I must say shamelessly but accurately, the following: to wit: Lamb roast with mint sauce, California potatoes, pickled beets, fresh green peas, lemon meringue pie and iced coffee.

For a penny one may enjoy a steaming, nourishing bowl of bean soup or beef broth with rice. Coffee, a doughnut, two slices of bread, prunes are each a cent. A doughnut, two slices of bread and baked fish four cents.

The chocolate mocha cake, which, with apple pie, shares honors for favorite dessert, costs two cents. All pie-and-don't fail to enjoy the lemon meringue pie and iced coffee.

MANY NOTABLE GUESTS

Here gather daily and in the evening, men and women of the most varied callings who know hardly any telling how bad business has been, and who know hardly any telling how bad business has been, and who know hardly any telling how bad business has been.

Col. and Mrs. Harry Dunham, who direct this superb charity, invite them to come and have yet to receive a request. Among those who have dropped in for lunch are Mrs. William Brewster, Secretary of the Navy Charles Francis Adams, Gov. Joseph B. Ely, Lieut.-Gov. George G. Bacon and Mayor James M. Curley.

Indeed, is charity with the curves off. It is a beautiful and long life.

Since Sept. 16, 1932, 550,000 men and women have been served in this Volunteers of America. Homeless, so-called, you've probably heard, because like the homeless in the Alps, it provides not only food but spiritual comfort as well.

There is a forum every night in the afternoon for the homeless, and a forum every night in the afternoon for the homeless, and a forum every night in the afternoon for the homeless.

Driver Has Crank, Train Gets Auto

Oakland, Cal., Aug. 10 (AP)—The crank in E. W. Mallon's hand was visible proof of his statement that he was trying to get his truck, stalled on a railroad track, started. But the train came along. All that Mallon had left was the crank.

MARINES READY FOR ANNING IN CUBA

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—Although President Roosevelt has indicated every effort would be taken to avoid intervention in the Cuban situation, informed quarters here today disclosed that should it be necessary the marines now stationed at Quantico, Va., probably would be the first to land.

About 100 men at Quantico, only a few miles from the national capital, are equipped as expeditionary forces for quick action.

They could be landed in Cuba within a few days.

Unofficial estimates showed today that probably 2,000 or more marines and sailors could be raised to Havana, if necessary from other points on the Atlantic coast, landing shortly after the Quantico group.

At least 1,000 regular army troops also would be available, mostly from the first division, composed of four regiments of infantry and auxiliaries stationed in and around New York.

Although army officials declined to divulge how much mobilization would take place, no secret was made that it is the official policy to have a "plan for every possible emergency."

Sources close to army authorities told the Associated Press that the first division in New York would be the first army troops to land in the event of conflict with the chief executive.

Marines near Manhattan are the 10th, 18th, 26th and 28th Infantry regiments, comprising from 400 to 1,000 men each. Besides these, there are several regiments of field artillery, engineers and other auxiliary troops. The army has in ten transports for moving these troops.

NAVY PREPARED
The Navy's contribution in case of need could come both from Quantico and Philadelphia, and from ships on the Atlantic seaboard. These include three cruisers, the Indianapolis out of Philadelphia, another at Boston, and a third from the Canal zone. These cruisers have complements of 400 to 600 men.

The naval transport, Henderson, at Norfolk, capable of carrying 400 sailors and marines.

Besides the cruisers, there are two divisions of destroyers on the Atlantic seaboard, of four ships each. One has a reduced complement, due to participation in naval reserve cruises. But the other division of four ships carries about 100 men to the ship.

ROOSEVELT WANTS PEACE

amendment to British and Spanish intervention.

Deep concern among administration officials was occasioned by President Machado's formal declaration of a state of war throughout the republic.

Despite circumstances that seemed to be pushing the United States toward intervention, the administration is still strongly averse to this drastic step.

At the same time, the American government delivered a second warning to President Machado that Ambassador Welles has the full support and confidence of President Roosevelt.

It had been reported that Oscar Chirina, Cuban ambassador here, had informed the government that Welles did not have the full support of the administration here.

Unimpeachable reports received here stated that in order to break the general strike of workers and force stores which closed voluntarily in sympathy with the strikers to open up, police in motor cars were dashing through the streets of Havana with machine guns firing indiscriminately at all closed stores, even in such prominent thoroughfares as the Prado.

The poorer classes have been without food for 24 hours and it is feared they will attack stores in order to obtain food. Furthermore, the reports said, the transportation unions have voted in favor of continuing the general strike, which is becoming intensified throughout the island.

Along with this state of affairs came complaints from the British and Spanish ambassadors to Welles about the destruction of life and property among their nationals.

The action of the British and Spanish diplomats in protesting directly to Welles over the head of the Cuban government was regarded here as tantamount to the United States that it has obligations to fulfill in Cuba under the Platt treaty.

Under the Platt Amendment to this treaty, the United States is given the right to intervene "for the preservation of Cuban independence and to maintain a government capable of protecting life, property and individual liberty."

Roosevelt Believes Machado Should Quit
Tyne Park, N. Y., Aug. 10.—President Roosevelt, having just before Ambassador Oscar Chirina of Cuba, made his own personal protest for ending the present reign of bloodshed and terrorism in the island republic, today awaited developments.

Although details were strictly guarded, it was learned definitely the chief executive thinks President Machado should resign, at least temporarily as a patriotic gesture to relieve the present tension. This fact was communicated to Ambassador Chirina.

If Machado agrees, President Roosevelt is anxious to get in communication with Machado personally and appeal to him as a patriotic duty to step aside. If Machado agrees, it is understood that a "graceful exit" will be prepared whereby he can step out of the dominant role in Cuban affairs without loss of dignity or personal prestige.

SUPPORTERS OF MACHADO IN CUBA SPLIT

Havana, Aug. 10 (INS)—The splintering for removal of President Gerardo Machado as Cuba's only ally to pass spread to the ranks of his own supporters today as the chief executive, entrenched behind machine guns, stood fast in his defiance of the United States.

With the first signs of real division in political parties aligned with the president, during the eight years of his regime, came a rumor of an uprising against his dictatorship in the important city of Montanillo, Oriente Province.

President Machado's decree declaring Cuba in a state of war and establishing complete martial law transformed the capital into an armed camp in the steel grip of draconian rule.

BRIDGES GUARDED
Several buildings in various parts of the city were used as concentration depots for troops.

All bridges leading into the city were guarded. The important Miramar Bridge was patrolled by marines, with two machine guns mounted in full view of the few pedestrians who ventured on the streets.

Several factors gave rise to belief that Machado's two ranks were crumbling beneath the weight of internal opposition and pressure from abroad, including President Roosevelt's pointed warning that political differences must be subordinated to the public need.

HAVANA PARALYZED

Despite the menacing situation, President Machado did not assign troops to the palace to protect him, relying upon the regular police guard and the detachment of machine-guns stationed on the palace roof.

Havana itself remained paralyzed. Transportation was at a standstill and only a few drug and grocery stores were open. The shortage of food and market supplies was more keenly felt as the hours passed and indications were that available stocks would soon be depleted.

$1,978,843 Deficit in Connecticut Fund

Hartford, Ct., Aug. 9 (INS)—A deficit of more than $2,000,000 in receipts for July this year, as compared with the July 1932 total left the state's general fund with a deficit of $1,978,843. Finance Commissioner Edward P. Hall reported to Gov. Cross this afternoon.

CUBANS TO SEEK U. S. AID, SAYS KARL DECKER

By KARL DECKER, Soldier of Fortune and Authority on Cuba Who Recently Made a Tour of the Insurgent Provinces of the Island.
Convention, 1933, by Universal Service, Inc. New York, Aug. 10.—United States intervention in Cuba, "modified intervention" as it is euphemistically named, may be demanded by Cubans themselves within the next fortnight if the intolerable condition existing there has not been relieved by that time.

It is known here that all the oppositionist bodies are considering flooding the American Embassy in Havana with petitions from every municipality, village and farm in the country asking the removal of President Machado from office in order that a provisional president may take his place during the time Cuba is reorganizing her governmental affairs.

WOULD AID ROOSEVELT

This action would take the cause off intervention by the United States. It would relieve President Roosevelt of the responsibility for interference in the affairs of Cuba, as the act would be the result of an almost unanimous request by the people of Cuba.

Cubans in New York who have been in close touch with their fellow oppositionists in Cuba have noted the swing toward approval of intervention. Until now the word could not be mentioned in the presence of a Cuban without causing a heated protest.

Now, however, that Spain is certain to demand of Cuba protection for her nationals and may in the hot-blooded fashion of the new republic even lay a hand of warships off Morro the conviction is developing that American intervention is the only solution.

DANGEROUS FOR SPAIN

Spain is in danger of being discredited if she is induced to disregard what happened in the case of Cuba, as the act would be the result of an almost unanimous request by the people of Cuba.

Cuba will receive benefit in the eyes of the world within the next week," said Dr. Carlos de la Torre, "should she fail it may be the only intervention on earth."

Intervention demanded by the great mass of the Cuban populace will mark the path of President Roosevelt.

Style or Fit? STYLE COMES FIRST

Style or Fit? STYLE COMES FIRST

The instant a woman enters a shoe store her companion starts flitting out the window. At least so says Dr. H. W. Meyerding, head of the Orthopedic Department of the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn. He voiced his opinion at the National Association of Chiropodists convention in Milwaukee, Wis., and in as little as half dozen of Boston's most suave shoe salesmen tossed the customary gallantry overboard, long enough to second the motion, at least in part.

Said Dr. Meyerding: "Women's superiority as a shopper ends when she walks into the shoe store. She is infinitely more concerned with how a shoe looks and whether it is fashionable than she is with how comfortable it will be. Men want first of all a comfortable shoe, a good-looking shoe, a well-fitting shoe."

"That's been on the tip of my tongue ever since I've been in the shoe business," commented David Seegal, veteran salesman at Seegal's Shoe Store on Sumner st., when the noted orthopedic specialist's uncomplimentary remarks were quoted to him.

"The doctor certainly knows what he's talking about. Do you know that most women never even stand on or walk around in a shoe that is not comfortable?"

"Their chief concern usually is how to squeeze a shoe seven feet into a shoe four and a half feet. That accomplished, they twist their feet around to be able to see it from all angles—just to be sure it looks as small as they wish it were."

STAMP GETS COMFORT

Her usual superiority over a man buyer is lost when a woman buys shoes, Dr. H. W. Meyerding, chiropodist, said.

Men buy for comfort, women Always consider style first when they go to buy new footwear.

"Men," says this experienced shoe salesman, "have an exact opposite viewpoint on the shoe question. When they purchase a pair of shoes the only stipulation is that it must be as comfortable as an old shoe."

Blue Eagle or No Work Slogan Rules

Tampa, Fla., Aug. 10.—More than 800 workers in the cigar industry remained away from work today following action by the Independent Union of Cigar Makers of Tampa in voting to stay away from their jobs until the cigar manufacturers of Tampa obtain the Blue Eagle of the N. R. A.

Only one major factory, the Havana Cigar Company, remained open, and workers were at their benches there as usual.

Norman Freed for Operation

To undergo a minor surgical operation, Dr. Jose Frederico Norman, awaiting extradition to Germany on swindling charges, today was freed on bail of $5000 from East Cambridge jail.

Immediately upon his release by order of Judge James A. Lowell, the former teacher of a Harvard course in economics, went to the home of friends in Brookline.

Habes corpus proceedings for Dr. Norman are now pending in federal court and for that reason he was released on bail while others who face extradition must remain in jail.

Dr. Norman was ordered returned to custody of the German government when Baron Kurt von Tuppelkirch, German consul here, reported that the doctor was really Isaac Levin, head of a $700,000 bank swindle.

Since his arrest he has bitterly fought the return to Germany on the grounds that his Jewish origin would deny him the prospect of a fair trial under the Hitler regime.

52 ARRESTED IN N. Y. MILK RIOT

Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 10 (AP)—At least 52 arrests in connection with a determined onslaught of striking milk producers upon trucks delivering milk to a dairyman's league plant at DeRuyter this morning were reported by state police and the office of Sheriff Kenneth Parker.

Eight deputy sheriffs were on guard at the plant and called the sheriffs off and the trucks back to the state police when a mob began to gather. Troop D at Onondaga sent 22 men speeding through while the sheriff dispatched six to eight carloads of armed deputies.

Milk was being dumped on many roads in the trouble area, said the report.

The Onondaga barracks was informed that a mob of 200 was gathering about the dairyman's league plant at DeRuyter and it was understood troops were dispatched there.

Waterson, Noted Music Maker, Dies

Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 10 (AP)—Henry Waterson, 55, veteran New York music publisher, dropped dead last night at his new summer home, while supervising construction of a chicken coop.

He had been a close friend of Irving Berlin, Tin Pan Alley's foremost composer, and prior to his retirement was a member of the firm of Waterson, Berlin and Troyer.

... suppose you tell me why you smoke Granger

"WELL, it's like this: Back in the old days, when men wore high hats and frock coats, they had plenty of time to think things out—and they had sense too. They used to sit down on a log and whittle their tobacco from a plug to be sure of having a cool smoke."

"In those days a man named Wellman, right here in Quincy, Ill., made about the best tobacco you could get. He knew how to make pipe tobacco."

"Well, sir, the people who make this Granger Rough Cut

Cut acquired old man Wellman's method, and they must have known how the old boys used to whittle their tobacco."

"Yes, sir, this Granger is the real stuff. The same mellowness and fine flavor that Wellman used to hand out to his friends. And it's whittled into big shaggy flakes all ready for the pipe. 'Rough Cut' they call it—'cut rough to smoke cool.'"

"Granger is about the best pipe tobacco I ever smoked."

CROWDS STORM SUMMERFIELD'S IN GREAT BARGAIN RUSH

Summerfield's News

Special Edition

SPECIAL MILLION DOLLAR AUGUST SALE

FURNITURE—FLOOR COVERINGS—RADIOS—HOUSE FURNISHINGS—TIRES

Copyright 1933—A. R.

EXPECT FURNITURE PRICES TO DOUBLE DUE TO SHORTAGE

I Advise All My Friends To Buy All They Need Now!

What I have seen in the wholesale furniture markets—Grand Rapids, Chicago and New York, has made me realize the seriousness of Rising Prices. Prices will double within a few weeks. I advise all who know me and heed my words to do your buying at once. You will thank me later.

B. Stern, Pres.
Summerfield's

Upholsterers' Strike—Lack of Raw Materials Causes Problem—Many Factories Now Oversold

The predicted shortage of Furniture is beginning to be felt. Orders placed with manufacturers are being returned to dealers with notifications thereon—we cannot accept your order due to Upholsterers' strike—or we cannot ship your order unless you agree to the 30% price increase—or orders booked for shipment only after November at November prices—or we are over-sold, etc.

Where furniture is needed for Fall or Winter it is a good idea to place a deposit on what you need—and have the furniture house storage it for you until you are ready—Summerfield's will gladly do this for you.

Summerfield's Gives 2 Years to Pay

In keeping with President Roosevelt's program to encourage retail buying—Summerfield's has agreed to accept Credit terms on new purchases allowing up to 2 years to pay. Summerfield's does this because of absolute confidence in the future of our country and in the Honesty of the people of New England.

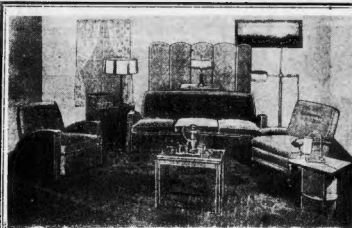

ENTHUSIASTIC CROWDS AGAIN CRASH DOORS

Salesforce Doubled To Give Better Service

Enthusiastic crowds stormed Summerfield's yesterday to get their share of the many bargains offered. And in spite of the pushing and scrambling to get in first, everybody had a chance to visit the store. Mr. Stern, President of Summerfield's, is so glad at the success of the sale that he has given orders for it to be continued full force—if necessary—until every stick of furniture in Summerfield's warehouses is sold out. He says: "After this sale, we can start again with an entire new stock—even if we have to pay a lot more to get it. But while our stocks last, let our old friends get it at this sale."

GIRL, BOY AT SEA ALL NIGHT PICKED UP

A youth and a girl who drifted all night in the ocean off Cape Ann, Gloucester, in a 20-foot open motorboat were returned safely this morning by a lobster fisherman whose craft took them in tow.

The couple were Arnold Ellis, 17, son of Capt. Wilfred J. Ellis, Battery A, 102d Field Artillery, and Miss Grant, 18, daughter of City Clerk Allen J. Grant.

They said the motor had become disabled when they started to return from a swimming party. Ellis and Miss Grant told of drifting with the strong currents through the night. At one time, they said, they were off Salisbury Beach.

Three coast guard vessels, together with a number of private craft, searched all night for the couple.

42 Soldiers Killed in African Fight

Rabat, Morocco, Aug. 10 (AP)—Furious hand-to-hand fighting, during which 42 soldiers were killed battling dissidents at Dabul, Rabat, Sunday were reported in dispatches reaching Rabat. Two officers and 33 soldiers were wounded.

STURGIS FACES EL QUIZ

Arthur Sturgis, of Washington, D. C., economics expert, will take the stand for further cross-examination when the Boston inquest resumes next Monday at 10 o'clock. It is expected the company will place several substantial witnesses on the stand when Sturgis finishes.

When both sides have completed their cases there will be an adjournment of two weeks to give lawyers for the coroner and the deceased time to go over the testimony.

BATES GRILLS PRISON WARDEN

Washington, Aug. 10 (US)—Senator Bates, superintendent of prisons, tomorrow will issue a complete statement of his investigation into the alleged escape of "Terry" Druggan, Chicago gangster serving sentence in Leavenworth Penitentiary.

Bates yesterday had Robert Haddock, warden of the prison, to his office for a grilling of several hours to determine why Druggan was made a trustee, permitted to visit friends, including a woman, and use a prison truck for transportation.

Haddock was called to Washington after it had been brought to Bates' attention that Druggan had received these unusual favors for which three prison attacks, including the chaplain, were suspected.

Body of Lost Maine Baby Found in River

Rumford, Me., Aug. 10 (AP)—After an all-night search, the body of the 15-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McIntire was found near here, was found today in the Swift river. The child had wandered away from his home yesterday.

Children Eager for Norumbega Day

Monday is to be "Boston American Day" at Norumbega Park. Which means that for those who clip the coupons appearing in Saturday's Boston American, there will be given free admission to the park and free rides on the four big rides and thrillers in this beautiful amusement center.

Mothers and their children may, by merely clipping the coupons Saturday, enjoy an entire day at Norumbega Park for the coupons are redeemable from 11 a. m. until 8:30 p. m.

The large coupon will give free admission to the park where one may spend an entire day in relaxation and enjoyment. There are wooded lanes and interesting scenic points on every side. Then the four smaller coupons will each give the bearer the following privileges: a ride on the big merry-go-round; admission to the famous "Crystal Maze"; a ride on the Caterpillar; and also a ride on the Tumble Bug.

Norumbega is filled with interesting things and how the mothers and their children will enjoy this day at the gates of Boston American.

Clip the coupons Saturday then on Monday enjoy yourself at Norumbega Park. Every child who is able will be done there to add to your enjoyment and see that the children are well cared for during the day. Watch for those coupons in Saturday's Boston American.

The Farmer Smiles

Starting Today

Happy days are here again for the farmers of New England. John Keane, shown above, milking Alisa Crest Twilight, on the farm of Frank H. Reed in Lexington, works for one of the hundreds of farmers who are happy. Oh, yes, we forgot. They're happy because the price of milk is going up one cent, beginning today. You will now pay 10 cents per quart at your neighborhood store. If the milk is delivered to your home—the price is 12 cents. Of this price, the farmer gets 6 1/2 cents. (Boston American Photo.)

Yesterday, Arizona, formerly State day in the Union, formerly State day, voted three to one to repeal prohibition. The vote was 54,289 for repeal, 16,147 against it. Arizona is the 21st consecutive state to vote against prohibition.

Col. Frank M. Shutt, owner of the Miami Herald, telling the world that New York is hotter in July than Miami, also says that Florida will certainly vote to repeal prohibition, and the march to bring back alcohol, there is no lack of that, as to get rid of crime.

Col. Shutt calls attention to the fact that there is no kidnapping in Florida, where the penalty is death, and would be applied enthusiastically to everybody even remotely connected with a kidnapping enterprise. If, as in the case of the man who shot at President Roosevelt, and was executed, instantly is suggested, Florida, according to Colonel Shutt, would reply:

"Not in one State in which it is not safe for insanity, or pretended insanity, to obey any criminal impulse."

Fashion, planned to make women buy new clothes, will have dress extremely tight in front, very loose behind, emphasizing the rear part of the dress, and bringing back the ancient "bustle." You are too young to have seen a bustle, imagine four or five top balloons, covered with cloth, fastened to the back of the dress, just below the waist. That is the bustle.

You wonder why women should ever have adopted the bustle, and you are the life-like reproduction of the Hottentot Venus in Paris, and the pictures of women on walls of ancient cave-dwellers.

The Hottentots of today are like the cave men of ancient times, in that they like their women fat as pigs, especially around the hips, so fat that even before 20 they would weigh 300 pounds or more. A figure absolutely flat and straight in front, and round at the back is preposterous, but that makes no difference, if it is fashionable.

No rules apply to women, or anything concerning them. A young New York author who had been kept on a strict diet, consisting chiefly of milk, returns from a two weeks' vacation looking remarkably well and reports:

"I went completely off my diet while spending my vacation in Nova Scotia. What did I eat? Principally loasters, cream and gin."

If a man did that, he would die, instead of looking better.

Before you worry about dollar inflation, read figures from the United States Treasury. Dollars in circulation at the end of July were fewer by more than ninety-one millions than in June. And all our dollars in circulation, now that we have gone off the gold basis, are fewer by $96,319,000 than a year ago.

All the money in the United States amounts to less than $40 for each inhabitant. That does not seem too much, considering that a healthy black slave in the old days was worth $1000. Should we not, on the contrary, and without any inflation, have at least five or ten billion more?

Barbarys in Alaska

Juneau, Alaska, Aug. 10 (INS)—John Barrymore and his wife Dolores Costello, and their three-year-old daughter, paid a leisurely visit to Alaska today. The Barrymore party arrived in the screen star's infant.

GRANT AUSTRIA MORE TROOPS

London, Aug. 10—Permission to send a special force of 8000 men to deal with "terroristic outrages" has been obtained by Austria from Britain, France and Italy, the London Daily Telegraph states today.

The Austrian force is to be placed under control of the minister of the figure laid down in the treaty of St. Germain.

That Austria was seeking such power to augment her armed forces was told by Universal Service exclusively on July 28, when the critical status of the Austro-German "back fence" was of propaganda first began to come to the surface.

I've Lost My Dog, Wails Governor

Gov. Ely was in distress today when he was greeted by newspapermen in his office.

"I'm in trouble," he said. "I've lost my dog."

The Governor said the Scottie pup, a brindle named "Skipper," home of Gov. Ely's son, Richard, at 22 Chestnut Hill, Newton.

The worst of it is," said the Governor, "I don't know where he had his collar and license tag on."

After finding "Skipper" telephone the Ely family at Aspinwell 6165.

J. F. O'CONNELL HITS NRA DOGGE

There was no doubt in the mind of former Rep. Joseph F. O'Connell, Brighton Democrat, today, that he is going to be Boston's next mayor, and he says he will be an efficient and patriotic executive.

He issued a statement indicating that no one who has not subscribed to the code of the National Recovery Act need hope to do business with the city under the O'Connell administration.

His statement, in full, follows:

"I now serve notice that no contract, big or little, will be signed by me for work or material for the city of Boston, except by those who have subscribed to the National Recovery Act, and I urge all who expect to do business with the city of Boston during the coming four years to subscribe to the code of their particular business at once."

"I want to point out, particularly to city employers, that the success of this movement, which President Roosevelt holds out the first favorable hope that their wages and salaries can be restored to their former maximum, and for that reason every possible effort should be made by the employers of all departments to work for the success of this movement."

It is unnecessary for me to point out to them the cost of living going up as a result of this effort, but it certainly must follow that their wages must be raised or restored.

So and So Is Next!

DOOMED DRY BUREAU GETS REPRIEVE

Washington, Aug. 10 (AP)—Prohibition administration throughout the country received word by telegraph last night to continue its function under the old set-up until notice of a new lineup.

Although the old prohibition bureau expired last midnight under reorganization order of President Roosevelt making it a unit of the division of investigation, Justice Department officials were unable today to say what changes would be made.

William Stanley, first assistant attorney general, conferred with Attorney General Cummings at Hyde Park yesterday and is expected to return today with approval of the new lineup.

John E. Hurley, who will head the new unit, sent telegram to administrators telling them the bureau would continue to function as at present until further notice.

N. E. Dry Bureau Gets Surprise Lease of Life

A surprise new lease of life was given to the prohibition bureau in New England today when Prohibition Administrator John W. Morrill received from Washington a telegram informing him the bureau will continue "until further notice."

The bureau was supposed to go out of existence at midnight last night, when Morrill and his 60 remaining New England enforcement agents were to become part of the Department of Justice investigating force.

It was believed here that the delay in winding up the local bureau is only until the adjustment and the shift of the man can be completed as to arrangements.

Accuser of Eugene O'Neill Fails

New York, Aug. 10 (INS)—"George Lewis," who sued Eugene O'Neill, his producers and publishers, alleging that "Strange Interlude" was a plagiarism of his work, only to get a decision from the court in his favor, assessment of the costs, filed bankruptcy today.

She gave her legal name as Gladys A. Lewis and listed $100 in household goods against $20,731.10 of liabilities, mostly current food and court costs.

ADD TO STRIKE PICKET LINES

Pickets at the strike of needle trade workers were increased today for the third day of the strike in the downtown area.

And with the influx of new pickets in the ranks of the strikers increased to the 500 mark, according to Fred Flanagan, president of the Needle Trades Workers' Union.

Attention of union leaders today was divided between downtown activities and the organization of shop workers in the outlying sections. As part of the latter program a mass meeting of needle workers in Lynn was arranged for tomorrow night at Lister's Hall, Lynn.

Nebraska Hails Beer

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 10 (AP)—Nebraskans drank their 23 beer today with a quietness of its legal return. It became legal at 12:02 a. m.

SECOND ARREST IN FORGERY OF KANSAS BONDS

Topeka, Kan., Aug. 10 (AP)—A second arrest has been made in the Kansas municipal bond forgery scandal, which already had led to the arrest of Joseph Finney, a broker; discovery of at least $600,000 in spurious bonds; and closing of three state banks.

Leland Calverly, an employee in Finney's Topeka office, was taken into custody last night on charges of having uttered $500 in forged bonds to the National Bank of Topeka. Finney, arraigned on a similar charge, is alleged specifically to have uttered $20,000 in spurious securities to the same bank.

NOVOTY IN DUPLICATE
D. A. N. Chase, budget director, and A. B. Jones, state auditor, and assistants are checking bonds and records in the office of the state treasurer, Tom Boyd. State officials have revealed eight issues of municipal bonds totaling $200,000 are known to have been forged in duplicate, one set going to the state treasury as security for state deposits and the other set being in the hands of Chicago brokers.

VAULTS GUARDED
Armed National Guard officers were posted to see that bonds and records were removed without tampering from the state treasury vaults.

Officials of the banking department are checking the records of these state banks that were closed following Finney's arrest. All three—the Fidelity State Bank of Emporia, the Bankers Bank and the Farmers State Bank of Emporia—were controlled by Finney's relatives.

The Emporia office of the broker was searched by Clarence V. Beck, Lyon County attorney, and Lester Goodell, State County attorney. Both said they were taking all the records of Gov. Alf Landon who has insisted upon a thorough investigation.

100 Weavers Strike in Fall River

Fall River, Mass., Aug. 10 (AP)—More than 100 of the 150 men and women weavers who have been working on double shifts of 40 hours each at the Richard Borden Manufacturing Co. went on strike today.

The strikers said they were required to operate two and three additional looms each since the adoption of the 40-hour schedule without an increase in their wage scales. Company officials declined a statement.

Free Schools for Jobless Urged

New York, Aug. 10 (INS)—Free education for unemployed at public expense was proposed today by three prominent educators to the national conference on the financing of education.

The educators also held education and recreation must be planned for the leisure hours created by shortening the factory week under the recovery plan.

Modern Planes Blamed for New Leprosy Plague

New York, Aug. 10 (INS)—Leprosy, mankind's most dreaded disease since Bible days, will be practically eliminated from the world in 10 or 20 years, said Dr. Arthur Torrance before leaving today for New Guinea to check the result of his work there last year.

Dr. Torrance, who is a resident of New York between medical expeditions to far corners of the earth, was one of the doctors sent into New Guinea last year by the Royal Society of Medicine of London to investigate reports of the spread of leprosy to the second largest island in the world.

The ancient plague, as Dr. Torrance explained today, had been introduced into New Guinea by the most modern form of transportation, the airplane. It also could be laid to the depression. The depression made gold more valuable and airplanes were used to bring Chinese laborers to the heretofore unworked gold deposits in the interior of the island.

CITY SUED FOR DEATH BY TREE

Fauntun, Aug. 10—Two suits, totaling $15,000, were filed here today against the City of Attleboro, both growing out of the falling of a tree on June 25, 1932.

David J. Tracy of Attleboro, administrator of the estate of Kathleen Tracy, a baby killed by the tree, sued to recover $10,000 for the death, while Rose M. Tracy, who was also injured in the accident, sued for $5,000.

Dumpling Dave Poochs Any Reconciliation With Aimee

Los Angeles, Aug. 10 (AP)—David L. Hutton, Jr., passed between death of great pain in his dressing room at a downtown theater to call an abrupt halt to talks of a reconciliation between him and his ex-wife, Aimee, Sample McPherson.

That started up against him Tuesday when the two of them emerged from a tea-table in a hotel dining room to impress onlookers that everything was going to be all right in the partnership of Angelus Temple once more. An attorney (at that time) opened that dropping of Hutton's divorce seemed not unlikely.

"This reconciliation stuff," said Dumpling Dave, "has got ahead of me. Of course, I spoke with my wife, but that doesn't mean that my divorce action will be affected in any way."

His wife said she was going away on a preaching tour to forget a broken heart.

"I began my campaign of strenuous work," said Mrs. McPherson-Hutton, "because I wanted to forget. I have never worked so hard as since my return home. It seems to help."

The evangelist hasn't been served with the papers in her husband's suit for divorce.

The round Hutton leaves tonight for San Francisco in furtherance of a career devoted to bartering ballads on the vaudeville stage.

UNDER A CLEAR SUMMER SKY dotted with stars that seemed poised to fall as if to come closer to the gay throng below, a few less than a thousand South Shore folk were happily gathered together last evening to enjoy the program of singing, dancing and magic which had been arranged to bring more aid and sunshine to the Children's Sunlight Hospital.

The wide sloping lawns of Mrs. C. Griggs Plant in Cohasset formed a natural amphitheatre... a special stage was erected for the presentation of the comic opera "The Secret of Suzanne," and a part of the velvet grass was the dancing floor for the Corbett Dancers, a group of beautiful girls who danced several popular brocton numbers.

The gracious hostess of the evening... we heard someone very early... she was her as the most distinguished lady on the grounds... greeted the guests in a mandarin coat, gaily embroidered with Chinese motifs. She is especially noted for her rock garden... planned and developed by her... a lovely hayfield... which she says are glorious with bloom in May and June. They are beautiful... tall and stinging in white dress and piggy jacket... Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. A. O. Barker, Miss Mary Howe and Mrs. Richard Cordingley, all in the fashionable white.

White-crowned girls and young maroons guided the visitors to the gardens and later to the rows and rows of seats in front of the stage. William C. Cox was in charge of this group, which also included cigarettes and punch. She was assisted by her new water-lily, Hugh Bancroft, Jr., who donned a black velvet jacket over her adorable white cape and took from when the evening breeze became too chilly.

Others on Mrs. Cox's corps of energetic workers were the Misses Mary and Alma Bird of Cohasset, both with slight touches of red on the dresses under their white jackets... they are both very pretty with golden brown hair and large smiling eyes... Miss Jeanne Adams of Cohasset... tall and stinging in white dress and piggy jacket... Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. A. O. Barker, Miss Mary Howe and Mrs. Richard Cordingley, all in the fashionable white.

AGAIN A WAVE OF CLEAR... hat wearers bring out... with a suggestion of the... modern-chic visored... hats are appearing on... the heads of the smart set and... swaggers look attractively worn... and here and there... sleek... are taking the place of the... hat party ones.

Miss Harriet Moseley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Moseley, is wearing a blue and white silk print frock with a good looking tan silk coat and a wide-brimmed fall style hat. She is tall and distinguished looking. Miss Harriet Fuller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Fuller, is wearing a gay print frock of dainty flowered design and a trim white hat with a blue ribbon. She is slender and elegant with a sweet smile and a merry twinkle in her eyes. She has a gorgeous summer tan. Miss Nancy Whitman is just one leap ahead of the game. She has brought a very smart gown of Loris model back with her from her trip and is showing them to an interested group at the North Shore. Miss "Betsy" Berry who is very versatile with her pen and pad is also showing a new "Club" at the Junior League wear a dainty pink outfit and one of those modish black and white pre-summer hats, lovely with a white ribbon. Mrs. Gardiner Fiske looks snappy in her new frock, a shimmering blue silk with dark blue matching hat and trim white leather cuffs.

Isabel Porter Plans Many Gowns

Miss Isabel Porter, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Allen Porter of Beacon st., who was the head usher at the musicals and tea at Mrs. William Phillips' beautiful estate in Weymouth on Tuesday, is a landscape architect of high repute.

After graduating from the Cambridge School of Landscape Architecture, she worked for a while as an assistant in her father's business for herself. She maintains an office in her father's home and had planned many delightful gardens for members of the social set along the North and South Shores.

The Keyhole on the News

Hot House Notes

Attorney Francis M. Carroll, former Fire Commissioner, was always a favorite of the newspapermen and some of his best stories, based upon his fire fighting experiences, have to do with them.

There is the story of the newspaperman whose funeral was brightened by a large floral piece from his colleagues of the press. It arrived heavily bound in rough paper and when unveiled, in a manner of speaking, contained this tantalizing inscription:

"Please pass through the fire lines."

Russia Softens

Dr. Samuel McCall Lindsey of Brookline, who has spent considerable time in Russia the last two years, finds the governmental attitude toward visitors improving.

There is a constantly increasing volume of foreigners coming into Russia now," he says. "None are more welcome than Americans, either for the Russians are to a great extent fashioning their life after the American life, however, quietly this is being accomplished. They have been helped for Americans who are coming into Russia merely to make money—to do nothing in politics."

Boil and Bubble

The immense tea kettle which stands in front of the Oriental Tea Company on Court street is real Boston legend. It has steamed steadily for 65 years and, like Old Man River, it just keeps going along.

The capacity of the mammoth kettle is 227 gallons, 2 quarts, 1 pint and 3 gills (pretty accurate, my masters). Eight boys and one full man have been fitted into its vast bowl. In the matter of interest for returning visitors to Boston this old kettle ranks with the Common, the State House and the Bunker Hill monument.

About People:

C. E. Goodspeed, Jr., is seldom seen in his bookshop these days, he's getting "the old days" of Joseph O'Connell's 17 children had a narrow escape at Marblehead when their boat capsized.

Francis J. W. Ford, the attorney who was a close friend and classmate of President Franklin D. Roosevelt at Harvard, died at George F. Bingham, the Massachusetts General Hospital here, says that the people of today die differently too delicately.

The greatest blessing that Harry P. Jennings believes possible, are just peace and quiet.

Morris Grek, the famed producer, used to be a newsboy in Boston's old Park Street.

William A. Sullivan, head of the company that name is a daily rider on the bridge path.

Joseph D. Bager of the Bager Electric Supply Co. is attending a convention at Bridgport.

The best of all summer drinks is a concoction of cold water, milk, according to G. V. P. Bonello, the Parker House chef.

BYRD PREPARES FOR SECOND TRIP SOUTH

Assembling of tons of supplies and equipment, the purchase and training of dogs and the overhauling of the cutter Bear are leads to the belief Rear-Admiral Richard E. Byrd will start his second Antarctic expedition late this year.

Admiral Byrd said he had not definitely decided whether he would start this year or next. However, those in close touch with the plans for the trip are of the opinion that the expedition will be headed for New Zealand by October.

The United States Shipping board has agreed to lend a steel ship, Pacific Fir, which will be used as the supply ship of the expedition. The steel will be unable to winter in the Antarctic, being of steel construction, but will solve the problem of transportation of supplies to the ice barrier.

The Pacific Fir has not been in use for some time and will probably be overhauled here. She is now being sent around to Boston from New York. The cutter Bear is now undergoing a thorough overhauling at a local drydock.

It is believed that the flights on the second expedition will be for the purpose of reinforcing the claim of the United States of the claim of the United States.

In addition to the exploratory work there will also be scientific work in geology, oceanography, study of the climate and similar matters. Part of this work will be a continuation of studies started the last trip while the rest will be devoted to new phases. It is understood.

The assembling of supplies and equipment is not yet finished although approximately 170 tons are now in storage at Boston Navy Yard. When the expedition gets underway, however, plans call for complete equipment and supplies for at least a year.

Soviets Warn on Fake Agents in U. S.

New York, Aug. 10.—The American Trading Corporation and the American-Russian Chamber of Commerce have warned business men against persons who represent themselves as having an "inside track" on Soviet aid.

The warning was necessitated by increased interest in trade with Russia caused in part by the Soviet cotton loan from the Reconstruction Corporation and the current negotiations for further loans.

Treasury Asks Bids

Washington, Aug. 10.—The Treasury has invited tenders for an issue of $75,000,000 of 60-day bills which will be sold on a discount basis to the highest bidder.

The Washington Sideshow

Washington, Aug. 10 (U.S.)—"Dollar Diplomacy" has been injected into the new deal. Strangely enough, Dr. William E. Dodd, famed historian of Chicago University and now ambassador to Germany, is responsible. For he is the only penniless American envoy to a first-rate power.

In order to aid Dr. Dodd as much as possible to maintain himself at the expensive Berlin post, a big-hearted State Department has arranged to pay him his gold. In this way he will not be adversely affected by the depressed dollar.

When Dr. Dodd was "preparing" for this post at the State Department, the question of entertaining came up in conversation with Undersecretary of State Phillips.

Said Dr. Dodd, alvily: "See, David A. Reed 'You can't eat or drink history; and perhaps some novel German history would not be something to Germans.'"

Hept on the floor of the plane returning from Hyde Park. "Just an old army com. . . Secretary of Commerce Roper keeps it working out in a business sense, the army almost did it with the dumbbells."

Eggs Is Eggs

Thus far, Bob Bloom of New York, who superintended the construction of the midway palanquin at the Chicago World. Fair in 1893, has stowed clear of the Century of Progress. He admits he shrank from meeting some of the customers who paid him $100 an order for scrambled switch eggs 60 years ago. He protests, however, this venture started on the up-and-up but the ostriches failed to lay fast enough. So he substituted storage eggs, which had the same money flavor as switch eggs, in order not to disappoint adventurers in strange delicacies.

Reporters Ired

Not since the famous crack of Senator David A. Reed of Pennsylvania, about the "so-called ethics of the so-called newspaper profession," have Washington correspondents been so aroused. Their ire is directed at Frank E. Taplin, Pittsburgh coal operator, who refused to attend a conference arranged by NRA officials to explain the coal code to newspapermen. Taplin, declined, saying he wanted nothing to do with report-

SEVEN ADRIFF RESCUED

Sydney, N. S., Aug. 10.—Seven young men and women were at their homes today recovering from ordeal of drifting at sea for 20 hours in a disabled motor launch. Rescued by the cutter Watuka, the group comprised Alex and Joseph Marsh, their sister Mary, John and William Keating, their sister Julia, and George Beck, well known Sydney runner.

The launch left Sydney early Tuesday and the engine went out of commission a short distance out of the harbor. Gradually drifting in the open Atlantic the craft was pulled into the afternoon by a fishing schooner which stopped alongside but decided to report the party's plight instead of giving a tow to shore.

When the launch had drifted to the vicinity of Flint Island it was sighted by the cutter Watuka, which picked up the seven persons aboard and headed back to Sydney.

TWO PRIESTS TO TAKE VOWS

The Rev. Ernest Killier Bannan of St. John's University, Shanghai, China, and a member of the diocese of Springfield, Ill., and the Rev. Robert Fletcher Humphreys of Middletown, Conn., a member of the diocese of Atlanta, will take their monastic vows Sunday at St. John's Episcopal Church, Cambridge.

On Aug. 20, it is also announced, Bishop Irvine, who has long been a priest-associate of the Society of the Holy Evangelists, and who since the death of Bishop Webb has been Episcopal visitor of the American Congregation of the S. S. C. will make his first visit to Cambridge in that official capacity and will preach and pontificate at St. John's.

N. E. Druggists to Form Code Here

The first New England drug conference will be held at the Hotel Statler next Monday, when the code to be submitted under the N. E. R. A. will be formulated.

Martin E. Adams, president of the Massachusetts State Pharmaceutical Association, serves as chairman of the conference, which will work with the cooperation of the National Drug Institute which organized some months prior to the passage of the National Recovery Act.

Driver Sticks to Wheel to Avoid Striking Cars

The life of several motorists on the Newburyport turnpike were saved by the alertness of James Kealey, 26, of River View rd., Brighton, truck driver, who suffered only a few bruises after striking his life to save them.

Kealey was driving a truck loaded with several tons of stone, up Ray Farm hill and had almost reached the top when his motor car stalled. The truck started to roll back and his brakes failed to hold. The heavy car, Kealey, glancing back over his shoulder for a line of almost a dozen cars.

He turned the truck to the right and it ripped out five cement posts and 100 feet of wire cable without checking its progress to any great extent. He turned the wheel sharply and the truck swerved of the road and plunged down a 40 foot grade. Kealey leaped out and sustained only a few scratches.

This s Life
By ROBERT E. ROGERS
I KNOW of no more interesting gamble nowadays than book foras are nothing to them! A book is announced for a certain publication date, the reviewers are sent advance copies, and then—if you are a little on the inside—you watch with some interest to find out whether the volume is going to be a success—or a flop. And when these books are being issued literally by the dozens every week, it is easy to see that the publishing game has something of the same fascination as roulette.

The first reviews, usually decide the fate of a book. If they are many and enthusiastic, the publisher has a chance of cashing in. But not always. Reviews are little cattle, full of notions and prejudices and oddities, particularly if they are young things with modern ideas. To that case they may unite on praising some to the skies, something that the average well-educated reader wouldn't touch with a ten foot pole.

On the other hand, of course, many a book—like many a play—starts its life without a good word from any critic, may, by word of mouth, sweep the country. "Abner Irish Rose" was one case in point. "Polyanna" was another.

It was interesting to note, therefore, that in this part of the world at least, thoughtless Mifflin Co.'s new biography, "Quaker Militant," the life of John Greenleaf Whittier, by Albert Mendell, got off to an auspicious start. Of course, the publisher is a historic and highly respected Boston firm, the connection of Whittier with Boston was always fairly close, the abolitionist movement seems to us here a Boston movement, and we have always had a strictly proprietary interest in the classic period of American literature of which Whittier was one of the stars.

Yet the book has done very well elsewhere, so far as reviews are concerned. The reason, of course, is one which would have made Whittier cringe. For most of the reviews and special stories have been concerned, not with his poetry, nor his place in the pre-Civil War disturbances, but his love life, as described by the author. It's only fair to Mr. Mendell to say that the love life of Whittier does not occupy as much space proportionally in his book as it does in the reviews. Yet, it is a toothsome morsel, of its intended to be in the reviews. It is a Freudianism and psychoanalysis, presenting Whittier as a lifeless virgin and celibate, full of Quaker inhibitions—all of which caused his continued ill health—and a male coquet, who could not help arousing the ardor of lady poets, and out who always fled from them and Summer quiet came to an abrupt end in Newtonville at 2 o'clock this morning when a bomb exploded in the home of Joseph Smith, Jr., 22, of the Fourth ward, who was a series of explosions and dashing to West street, heard a woman cry: "The damn fool doesn't know the Fourth of July is over!" Entering the first house, they found Vernon T. Stuart, 29, badly wounded in the bomb-blasted end of the window. Stuart was fired for disturbing the peace and placed on probation for drunkenness. Police said he fired a revolver from an auto on the night before the Fourth two years ago and wounded a girl. "What is this Fourth of July stuff—a habit or a hobby?" asked Judge. At 4 a. m. the three policemen were still busy recording the deaths of Newtonville's traditional summer quiet. Philip P. Andrews, 22, of Kirkland rd., former Newton high and Worcester Academy athlete, was seized for drunkenness in Newtonville and he tapped the three officers like a cow of dominions before being clubbed into submission. At the police station he again came in and with a murmur about his "mean left," knocked Maguire's jaw loose. The city physician had to patch the prisoner up after a third outbreak, and in court his case was put over to Aug. 27. Two hours elapsed before the quiet commotion in the quiet suburb. This was a quieter occurrence, but even more startling. The three policemen found Francis McDermott, 32, of Clarendon st., stark naked and unconscious behind a store on Bowers st. Life was broken. Police believe a gang beat him up but he said he remembered nothing.

Singer Is Held For Theft of Hymnals

It was a dull morning. The organ was playing at St. Paul's Cathedral, Tremont st., Edward J. Costello, 45, of Endicott st., went in. He was well received. Usher handed him two hymn books. Costello was not in good voice. He put the books under his arm and walked out. "He gave 'em to me," he told "ville Officer Thomas Leonard, who arrested him on demand of a cathedral attaché. But he made the mistake of giving his name as Maurice Palmer. Police discovered his real name. "The Costellos are having enough trouble," the prisoner declared. "Well, there's going to be one Mrs. Costello in court today," they told him.

Quincy Judge Warns 15 of Nude Bathing

A terse lecture on the utility of clothing and what men—even little men—should wear while swimming was delivered today in Quincy juvenile court by Judge Avery. Warning 15 Dorchester and Jamaica Plain youngsters rounded up nude yesterday at Cashman's Quarry, Quincy, he dismissed all charges against them.

Will Visit Boston

Boston may soon have a chance to see the very latest thing in fighting planes, the new low-wing Douglas designed for the Army Air Corps.

The ship, which has fitted guns operated by both the pilot and the observer as well as carrying several hundred pounds of bombs, is now at Wright Field, Dayton, O. It will soon leave for Hartford, Conn., and Boston.

Police in the next state conference of the Chamber of Commerce will have up suggestions for profitable investments.

BUFFINGTON-TABER TEAM BEATEN IN NEW BEDFORD 4-BALL

HOOPER TEAM UPSETS PAIR, 2 AND 1

By BILL GRIMES
New Bedford, Aug. 10.—With one exception, the Hoopers came through in the first round of the annual County Club New Bedford four-ball invitation tournament this morning. The only upset was the elimination of A. T. Buffington, of Fall River, and Elliot Taber, New Bedford.

Buffington and Taber were on the worst end of a 2 and 1 match with M. Hooper, Taunton, and W. Collier, of the home club.

Although Taber and Collier played on even terms, Buffington gave the latter one stroke and the partner three, while Hooper also got one stroke from Taber.

WHITESIDE AND WEEKS WIN
One of the few holes won by the Buffington-Taber combination resulted from Buffington hitting one of his opponent's caddies with the ball.

Dave Whiteside and Dr. Joshua Weeks, edition favorites to win the tournament, opened up with a 4 and 2 verdict over "Daddy" Bailey and Ted Rouner, from the Walpole Country Club.

Whiteside and Weeks were at the peak of their game, and despite the fact that Rouner received 18 strokes from Whiteside and 13 from Weeks, the Walpole City pair were unable to hold the pace set by their opponents.

MCGINN INJURED
Ken Morse and R. K. Jones of Belmont Springs eliminated P. O. McDavid and W. Gordon, New Bedford, one of the highest handicapped teams in the field.

Although Jones came in for his share of the blame, it was Morse who carried the load, making five birdies on the 13 holes played.

There was only one default among the 64 teams entered in the tournament, but there was one other casualty. T. D. Westberry, Belmont Springs, who was scheduled to have played with Tom McGinn, lost two teammates in his stable last night when he slipped in a shower bath at Woodland after the Shriners' society and had to withdraw today.

The field was to play the second round this afternoon, after which one round a day division will go into action.

BLASTING TO SAFETY

Lou Gehrig to Continue After Record's Broken

New York, Aug. 10 (AP).—Lou Gehrig hasn't the slightest recollection of the game or circumstances under which he began his "Iron Man" streak of consecutive games away back in 1925 when he was just an enthusiastic big league "freshman" trying to make good for the Yankees the way he used to do for dear old Columbia.

What's more he hasn't thought much about it since and he has no idea whatever of asking for a day off after he plays consecutive games No. 1308, probably making Gehrig the longest-lived player in the world record for baseball endurance set by Everett Sout, Yankee shortstop, the same year that Gehrig took off on his non-stop flight.

"Why should there be so much fuss about a fellow sticking to a post steady job?" asked Gehrig after knocking off yesterday as Game No. 1307. "I can't say that I like to play baseball. The Yankees want to want me regularly on first base so why should I like to lay off? That in fact he played for several weeks in 1925 with a broken little finger, throwing his hand and at other times, he admitted, "it may have been torn sometimes but I figured I must as well play it. I could initial it having myself about, little things like that. I played a lot of football when I was in college and nobody was taking time out to ask me how I felt."

"I think the experience was good for me. At any rate I can't say I ever had much real acute trouble not being in the ball game or that the effort to keep my string intact influenced me to play when I shouldn't. This long run of games didn't hurt me, much to me until I started in 1930."

So far, Gehrig is concerned, he is not at all weary of playing daily adding to his list of games and until the Yankees decide he should have a year before that happens, the club won't hire another first baseman.

"I don't want to underplay for Lou on said now. His streak will reach 1312 games if he continues to present season, and the Yankees' decision was it should stop there."

REGATTA OPENS FOR HARVARD STUDENT

The annual regatta of the Harvard student body opened today on the Charles River. The race course was a short stretch between Lars Anderson and John F. Wells bridges.

Russell Cowan, welfare officer, presided over the opening ceremony. The official launch, the "Harvard" was the first to start.

'Twist Tee and Cup

By BILL GRIMES
New Bedford, Aug. 10.—President George R. Cherry of the home club, was present bright and early this morning to extend a warm hand of welcome to the golfers who are here for the Country Club of New Bedford four ball invitation.

There was a real psychology last night and the members of the visiting club felt very much at home. It seemed like the old days. It seemed like the old days. It seemed like the old days.

Stearns Reed, who came within a scant margin of knocking Joe Lynch out of the New England in the first round and Frank Coddige, Fall River, talked over their college days at Harvard with the visiting club members.

20-Win Mark Within Reach of Cantwell

By JOE CASHMAN
A goal which has successfully eluded every Boston pitcher, Red Sox as well as Braves, for exactly a decade, today looms as easy for Ben Cantwell to reach as is the lowest hung orange in his Sanford, Fla., grove, where he first learned the throwing art that is keeping the Braves in the thick of the pennant race.

Ben—and he'll tell you it's not—has never lost a game. He has pitched his 15th victory of the season when he turned back the Phillies to give the Tribesmen the edge in the three-game engagement just concluded at the Wigwag.

In the ordinary course of events, the 15th victory of the season would be a record for a pitcher. But for Ben Cantwell, it is only the 15th of his 20 wins. He has pitched his 15th victory of the season when he turned back the Phillies to give the Tribesmen the edge in the three-game engagement just concluded at the Wigwag.

It was back in 1923, when he pitched his 15th victory of the season, that he was first noticed by the Boston Braves. He was then a pitcher for the Sanford, Fla., grove, where he first learned the throwing art that is keeping the Braves in the thick of the pennant race.

COOK-COOKS

By TED COOK

According to William K. "Punchy-foot" Johnson, internationally known prohibitionist, "most of the stars are wallowing in the same old beer that used to put up under the table in the old days."

But it is possible to put a guy under the table with 3-point-2. If you leave it in the bottle, and swing hard.

Milestones of the path to civilization:
BERLIN—The name Hitler or any variation in syllables or formations form the first name for babies was forbidden in a government order issued today.

Gals with whom a date's a chick in depression get the punch.
Says Gene-cious, the Kitchener cynic:
"A widow is a gal who prefers life insurance to alimony."

SHORT STORY
FAMOUS AUTHORSHIP of tomorrow has 10 manuscripts overlooked by best magazines. De-sires more colorful vocabulary. So will trace script for use can. 100 W. 10.

TE EDITOR TAKES THE BROAD VIEW
(Lama, Mo. Democrat)
Nondy everybody that read the paper, Monday, observed in the story of the Davis boys who were arrested for having the still. It said one of them was married and his thirteen-year-old wife had a fourteen-year-old baby. Some baby and some wife! Of course it ought to have been a fourteen-month-old baby. Such mistakes are more or less embarrassing to the paper. But this is more than made up by the untold pleasure it gives to the readers.

Q and A DEPARTMENT
Dear Madona Bell—
As a poet you ought to go far—
—pretty far! Dilettante.
The Confidentiality, Madona, and Madona—a poet—has gone pretty far already.

And (Byron's Reason) Bell.
The gal who made
Bobby and after my earliest love.
